When I started working on my Jacobs direct line, I many Jacobs I thought was our line which turned out not to be after many hours of research. They may connect somewhere but I haven't found the connection as of now.

I started doing genealogy in 1969 and all my grand parents were gone but had other members of their's could get info from. Otherwise I worked at the court house and library and cemeteries to find info that I could.

I with others spent many a week at the Ft. Wayne, IN library, Salt Lake City library, Madison, WI library and many hours at Columbia, MO library just about every year from when I started. There was 4 of us who went to Iowa City every month during the good weather but now one has moved, one has passed and the other can't get out any longer and no fun to go by your self. So decided it was time to stop. This was before the internet so didn't have that to rely on but was just as well as have found a lot of wrong info on the internet. (I can't say mine is all right either) As much of it was not able to be proven for sure so just had to go by what we could find. But if anyone has proof of what you find is wrong in any of my books I would appreciate knowing it. We know every one is not 100% right as no one is perfect, even in research. New Data June 2017-GLT

So hope these books will be appreciated and enjoyed as much as I had putting them together. But I think now is the time to turn them over to someone else to enjoy as I can't get to the libraries any longer and only the internet to rely on and that isn't as much fun as going to the places where your ancestor's walked themselves.

You will notice different address's but the one above is correct.

Hi Gladys

This is a letter that I have received from one of my relatives.
I along with you I wonder at the early relatives starting with William.
Maybe this will help you a little bit on your decisions.
John W. Jacobs

HOW MARK JACOBS JR. SEES THE JACOBS FAMILY

I was born in Gardena, California May 1, 1911. Although I cannot recall the event I have a photo of my grandfather and grandmother Jacobs taken when I was around 18 months. As I grew up my father had mentioned that he was born near Forreston, Illinois and that his grandfather Dr. Samuel Jacobs lived in Adeline, Illinois.

We retired in 1970 after teaching 38 years in California, the last twelve being professor of Physical Science at El Camino College. Because of earthquakes, riots, congestion, and having our home robbed of valuables we sold our home and moved to Spokane, Washington where we hoped to enjoy some fishing and enjoy the grteat outdoors of the Northwest.

At that time my cousin Lowell Jacobs was Director of Adult Education at Spokane community College and was about to retire also. My father's brother Amos Jacobs also lived in Spokane and my grandfather and grandmother died in Spokane in the early 1930's. However up till that time I knew very little about the history of the Jacobs family.

One day, while visiting my uncle Amos Jacobs, he showed us two old trunks which contained old photographs, legal documents, newspaper clippings, as well as two old Jacobs family Bibles. One being the Bible of grandfather Henry Clay Jacobs, the other Bible being that of his father Dr. Samuel Jacobs of Adeline, Illinois. these Bibles contained birth dates of children but in addition the Bible of Dr. Samuel Jacobs indicated he was born inh Lonaconing, Maryland August 21, 1809 the son of Gabriel and Margaret Jacobs. After making a mental note of the contents of the two Bibles uncle Amos told us the following story as near as I can recall:

"Your grandfather Henry Clay Jacobs was born in Adeline 1842 the son of Dr.

Samuel Jacobs M.D. who was also an ordained preacher. Henry clay attended Mt. Morris Seminary where he met his future wife Mary Jane Beebe. After graduation grandfather was employed by the mercantile store of William Hewitt of Forreston. Mary Jane Beebe taught school for two or three years. They were married in 1868. Henry Clay at the time was age 26, Mary Jane was age 24.

They then moved to Hyde Park, Chicago where Henry Clay was employed for some five or six years as sales representative for the William Sawyer Boot and Shoe Firm. His territory being most of southern Illinois. Three children were born at Hyde Park - Flora, Charles, and Clarence."
"Mary Jane's father Nathaniel Beebe died in 1877 leaving his daughter Mary
Jane a substantial sum. At that time grandfather Henry Clay and Wife Mary Jane moved back to Forreston where they purchased a 120 acre farm which included a two story house. Three more children were born in Forreston, your father Mark, myself (Amos) and little Oscar who lived only five months."
"Henry Clay made a good living as operator of his 120 acre farm from 1878 till 1885. At that time Dr. Samuels wife died, he retired, Henry Clay sold the farm at a good profit, and we all moved to Chicago. My father Henry Clay bought a bakery on Wentworth Avenue so his oldest sons Charles and Clarence could learn a trade. Your father Mark enrolled at Englewood High School. Dr. Samuel Jacobs died at our home in Chicago in 1888."
"At that time (1888) father Henry Clay complained of Asmuth and bronchial trouble which he thought may have been aggravated by the cold Chicago winters. So after your father (Mark) had graduated from Englewood High School with honors, we left the two older boys in Chicago and moved to Cleveland, Tennessee which was much warmer and where Henry Clay had purchased a gentlemans farm. Henry Clay considered himself as retired, employed a hired man to operate the Tennessee farm. Your father (Mark) enrolled as a Freshman at the University of Tennessee while I (Amos) attended Cleveland High School."
"Because we were considered as northerners we were not too well received
at school even though the Civil War had ended some thirty years earlier. On the rear of fathers farm were to found ruins of a Civil War facility as well as several cannon balls. We returned to Chicago in the fall of 1899. Your father (Mark) enrolled at the University of Chicago while I (Amos) enrolled as a senior at Englewood High School."
"I (Amos) graduated from high school in 1890 at age 17. My father at that time asked me to work in the bakery along with my two older brothers Charles and Clarence. He also recognized was old enough to be told (on more than one occasion that the early Jacobs family originally came from Wales.

This

information having been told to him by his father Dr. Samuel Jacobs."

"Around 1902 several events occurred which changed the lives of the family.

Daughter Flora Jacobs married Dr.

Willard Arnold, my brother Charles left his position at the Chicago

Bakery

and west to Seattle, Washington."

"Your father (Mark) graduated from the University of Chicago, then later accepted a position teaching in Salina, Kansas."

Amos continued by saying:

"My father and mother wanted to move to California so they sold the Chicago

Bakery then my brother Clarence and I (Amos) joined them and opened a bakery near 31st and South Broadway in Los Angeles."

"After a few years in Los Angeles my brother Clarence left, married and opened his own bakery in Monrovia. At the same time my father Henry Clay bought an orange orchard near Riverside and turned it over to me (Amos)."

"I knew nothing about raising oranges but did the best I could till a winter freeze wiped us out. Father remained in Riverside while I (Amos) went up to Spokane and opened a wholesale bakery business. We did quite well so father (Henry Clay) moved up to Spokane where he spent his last years. He died in 1926. Mother Mary Jane died in 1930. I

(Amos) retired in 1950. Now you know something about the Jacobs family."

After Uncle Amos had finished we returned to our new home in Spokane wanting to know more about the early

Jacobs family. At the time Uncle Amos showed us the old bible of Dr.

Samuel

Jacobs we recalled a memo found on a blank page which included the words "born in the year 1809 Lonaconing, Pa."

We wondered if there could be relatives of the Jacobs family still living in Lonaconing? At the Spokane Library we were fortunate in finding a telephone book for Lonaconing which contained the name and address of a Vincent Jacobs.

We

wrote Vincent a letter. We received a reply saying he was a descendent of a Mathias Jacobs who lived there around the year 1800 but suggested I get in touch with his Aunt Flosie Jacobs Frye who was more knowledgeable than he about the early Jacobs family. A letter to

Aunt Flosie brought this very interesting reply. Aunt Flosie Jacobs Frye was a descendent of Mathias Jacobs. She had corresponded with Flora Jacobs Arnold of Spokane as late as 1947 when Flora died. That she met my father's brother

died. That she met my father's brother

Clarence Jacobs when he visited Lonaconing in 1905, and that the father of

Samuel Jacobs was Gabriel Jacobs born

1781 son of William Jacobs who came from Europe around 1743 and Married Elizabeth Trollinger.

All of the above was great news. We thanked Aunt Flossie and promised her we would try to visit her later in the year. there was no question - we were hooked on Genealogy. Information from the D.A.R., old county history books, correspondence with other relatives eventually helped us discover the names of the children of William Jacobs and Elizabeth Trollinger as follows:

William Jr. born 1770 N.J., Married Sarah Chess

Sarah born 1773 married Jonas Lovett

Henry born 1776 married Rebecca Price

Jacob born 1779 married Mary Spencer

Gabriel born 1781 married Margaret Jackson

Elizabeth born 1783 - spinster

Mary born 1783 married a Mr. Ayers

Eli born 1784 wife unknown

Mathias born 1786 married Margaret Potter

Catherine born 1791 married John Miller

In the year 1990 we were fortunate in being able to make a trip to Europe.

Because many references suggested that William Jacobs came from Wales we visited libraries there and the only

William Jacobs found with a birthdate

appropriate was William Jacobs born 13 September 1743 son of William Jacobs and Elizabeth Thomas in Eglwysilan, Glamorganshire Wales. Evidence seems to indicate William Jacobs left home at age 21 or 22, sailed as an indentured servant first to Connecticut, then to New York, to Philadelphia, finally found employment as a hired hand in Salem

County New Jersey where he met Elizabeth Trollinger, daughter of Gabriel

Trollinger who was a native of Baden,

Germany and at the time Deacon of the Lutheran Evangelical Church located at

Freasburg near Alloway Creek, Salem

County.

Their first three children (William, Sarah, and Jacob) were born in Salem

County, New Jersey. then because of extensive military activity by British forces in 1776 the family of William

Jacobs together with the family of Gabriel

Trollinger moved some two hundred miles west to Cumberland County,

Pennsylvania where they established farms in Pennsboro Township, near Harrisburg. Six more children were born there namely Jacob, Gabriel, Elizabeth, Mary, Eli, and Mathias. While living in Pennsboro Township William Jacobs was a member of the Militia. At the conclusion of the Revolutionary War government land to the west in Allegany County was made available to settlers. In the year 1787

in the yr 1787

the families of Gabriel Trollinger and William Jacobs secured government land lots near the Georges Creek Valley in Allegany County, Maryland.

William Jacobs died on his farm in 1816. Son Mathias remained there and became quite a prominent land holder.

Most of the other children moved north. Gabriel Jacobs (father of Samuel Jacobs orn 1809) died in Lonaconing in 1848. His wife Margaret Jackson Jacobs then moved to Yellow Springs, Ohio.

Margaret died in Yellow Springs in 1855.

Around the year 1980 we made a leisurely trip to the eastern states.

First

we visited Adeline. There we met Lucille Cross who was kind enough to show us the town, the home of Dr. Samuel Jacobs, and the Coffman Cemetery where he and his wife are buried.

We also visited Forreston where my father was born on the farm of Henry Clay

Jacobs in 1879. We also visited the Library at the town of Oregon where we were able to obtain some information regarding the early settlers who came to Adeline.

Our next visit was to the town of Yellow Springs where we visited the cemetery and found the tombstone of Margaret Jacobs, wife of Gabriel Jacobs, and mother of Dr. Samuel Jacobs.

While in Yellow Springs I had trouble with my camera. Some one at the cemetery was kind enough to refer me to the Photographers Shop of a Mr. Trollinger.

We had a short meeting with him but now I can not recall his exact relationship to the Trollingers in Lonaconing, but now feel he may be related to Ahimaaz Jacobs who married Emily Trollinger.

>From Yellow Springs we went down to Charleroi where we had a most interesting visit with Aunt Flossie Jacobs

Frye. She must have been close to age 90 but had a good memory and enjoyed passing on to us the story of her Jacobs ancestors descending from Mathi as and William Jacobs.

Our last visit was to the town of Lonaconing. We were able to find the original home of Gabriel Jacobs, and

Mathias where we found descendents still living who showed us the grave of Mathias and some of the history of the town.

Unfortunately I have lost or misplaced the notes written down on the trip described above, so what has been mentioned is all based on memory but belived to be reasonably accurate. So we come to the end of our story concerning what we discovered about the early Jacobs Family.

Upon returning home in Spokane we were surprised when some one said "Why did you have to do all that driving? You could have obtained all that information and more by driving? you could have obtained all that information and more by visiting the local Spokane Mormon Family History Center!"

So we visited the Spokane L.D.S. Center and were able to fill in a few gaps that we had overlooked. Now we know where to go for information but we have been advised that some of the LDS material is not always checked for accuracy, or was based on hearsay, or word of mouth. We were advised if at all possible to obtain our genealogy information from accurate sources.
John - please pardon mistakes in typing, spelling, and punctuation but it is the best I can do since at my age 89 my eyes limit my reading to only large print, and my penmanship and spelling is terrible.
Thank you again for sending your wonderful publication. I am sure you can understand why I was unable to attend that Family Reunion at Adeline. I did write a note to Lucille Cross with my regrets.

Should any of the above raise any questions in your mind let me know. It would be great to hear from you at any time.

John W

WILLIAM JACOBS - was born in Eglwsilan, Parish, G, Wales, United Kingdom about 1743. William died 1816 in George's Creek V, AC, Maryland, at 73 years of age. He married Elizabeth DROLLINGER in Salem Co., New Jersey, About 1765/1766.

(Elizabeth DROLLINGER is

#81.) Elizabeth was born in Mannington Twp., SC, New Jersey 16 dec 1748.

Elizabeth was the daughter of Gabriel

DROLLINGER and Anna Margaretha LOTHOLTZ. Elizabeth died 2 Aug 1833 in

George's Creek V, AC, Maryland,

at 84 years of age. WILLIAM JACOB(S) - Revolutionary War Soldier

(1743-1816)

& ELIZABETH DROLLINGER

(TROLLINGER) (1748-1833)

The birthplace of WILLIAM JACOB(S) is not known at the present time.

Generally it is believed that he was born in Eglwsilan Parish of c, lamorganshire in Wales. However, some believe that he was born in Connecticut soon after his parents, WILLIAM JACOB(S) and ELIZABETH THOMAS emigrated to America and.

then moved on to New Jersey. Also, his birth year is not known. But it is believed to be 1743.

It is known that WILLIAM lived. in Salem County in Lower New Jersey, where he married ELIZABETH

DROLLINGER (TROLLINGER) in 1765 or 1766. She had been born in Mannington Township of Salem County,

New Jersey, in 1748. She was the daughter of GABRIEL DROLLINGER and ANNA MARGRETHA LOTHOLTZ, who had been born in Ellmendingen in Karlsruhe, Baden, Germany, in 1722 and 1721, respectively.

After their marriage, WILLIAM and ELIZABETH settled in Maurice Township of

Cumberland County, New

Jersey, where they took up farming. There, they were also blessed with three children: William, born in 1768 or 1769;

Sarah, born in 1772 or 1773; and Henry, born in 1776. New Jersey records show that WILLIAM paid property taxes on his land there in September 1773.

After the Revolutionary War began with the Battles of Lexington and encud

Congress adopted a resolution on October 9, 1775, to raise the first Continental troops of the "Jersey Line."

It authorized two battalions of eight companies each. Each company was to be commanded by a captain and consist of a lieutenant, an ensign, four sergeants, four corporals and 64 privates. The privates were to enlist for one year, at $5 per month, and were to be allowed, instead of bounty, "a felt hat, a pair of yarn stockings, and a pair of shoes." But they were to furnish their own arms. These battalions were first designated the Eastern and Western, and then subsequently as the First and Second Battalions.

Family legend has long held that WILLIAM JACOBS served in the Revolutionary War. At the present time, evidence exists that a "WILLIAM JACOBS" enlisted from Maurice Township of Cumberland County, New Jersey. It is presently believed that he served in one of these two initial New, Jersey battalions. On November 10, 1775, six companies of these battalions, all that were then full, were sent to do garrison duty in a fort "on the highlands of the Hudson." On November 27, of that same year, the balance of the two battalions went into barracks at New York. The battalions were officially mustered to active duty in December 1775. Then on January 10, 1776, three companies of the First Battalion were sent to Queens County, New York to help arrest Tories.

The rest of the battalion was stationed at Perth Amboy and Elizabethtown, New Jersey, until they left to join an expedition to Canada. They participated in the operations before Quebec, and then went into barracks at Ticonderoga, where they remained until November 5, 1776, when they were sent home to New Jersey for discharge. Meanwhile, on January

8, 1776, the second Battalion was ordered to Albany, New York, to report to General Schuyler. Later, a Third Battalion was authorized by Congress on January 10, 1776. Four of its companies were first stationed at Staten Island, and the other four at Perth Amboy.

Then all eight proceeded on to New York City. When they were mustered in on May 2 by the muster-master-general, General George Washington pronounced them the flower of all the North American forces."

Soon afterwards, this battalion departed by sloops for Albany, New York.

Jacobs family legends also says that WILLIAM JACOBS helped to provide for widows and orphans during the Revolutionary War. It is not yet clear how he did this, but it is believed that his service with the "Jersey Line" would provide him an opportunity to help gather food and fuel to help meet their needs as the war spread. In fact, the British took New York City in 1776 and the fighting spread southward, into New Jersey. During the Battle of Trenton on December 26, 1776, however, Washington successfully crossed the Delaware and caught the British and their Hessian soldiers by surprise.

After WILLIAM was mustered out, he and ELIZABETH decided to move to a safer place, after she became pregnant, for the Revolutionary War continued to rage around them.

Finally

they and her parents reluctantly pulled up stakes and moved to a safer area in East Pennsboro Township in Cumberland

County, Pennsylvania, which lies between Carlisle and Harrisburg.

There, WILLIAM and ELIZABETH again took up farming to support their growing family. In fact, seven more children were born to them there. They were: JACOB, born in 1779;

GABRIEL,

born in 1781; Elizabeth and her twin,

Mary, born in 1783; Eli, born in 1785; Mathias, born in 1787; and

Catherine,

born in 1791.

Records show that WILLIAM JACOBS paid taxes on his land in East Pennsboro Township of Cumberland

County, Pennsylvania, from 1777 to 1786. During this period,

Washington's

Army was hard pressed as it wintered in 1777 at Valley Forge, outside of Philadelphia, about 70 miles to the east.

It may have been during this period of time that the family legend of WILLIAM helping to provide for the widows and the children of the soldiers may have been based on fact.

After farming in Pennsylvania for nearly ten years, the families of WILLIAM

JACOBS and GABRIEL

DROLLINGER (TROLLINGER) decided to move westward to take advantage of available government lands. In 1787 or 1788, they moved to George's Creek Valley in Washington County,

Maryland, which was later separated into Allegany County in 1789. There they obtained patents to government land.

WILLIAM obtained 50 acres, described as

Military Lot 3795 and GABRIEL obtained two adjoining 50-acre parcels,

Military Lots 3793 and 3794. These lands were on the northwestern slope of Dan's Mountain, a mile or two from the present towns of Lonaconing and Barton,

Maryland. At the time, some 200 families were residing in George's Creek Valley. The nearest town was Cumberland,

Maryland, the county seat, some 14 odd miles to the northeast.

Dan's Mountain was named for Daniel Cresap. His father, Thomas Cresap, had been born in Skipton, England, in about 1702, and had married Hannah Johnson in about 1727. Called the "English Colonel," he was one of the first white settlers the area now occupied by Allegany County, Maryland. Soon white settlers the area now occupied by Allegany Co and, soon after Fort Cumberland was built, he established a settlement called "Skipton," now known as oldtown. Before he died in about 1790, he had contributed greatly to the Patriot cause during the American Revolution. After a raid by Delaware Indians on this settlement, young Daniel pursued one of the Indians along the side of a mountain. When they came to a clearing in the dense woods, the Indian whirled, raised his rifle and fired. At that same instant, Daniel fired at the Indian. The ball of the Indian's rifle went through Daniel's lungs, and he went through the Indian's abdomen. When Colonel Cresap rushed to the scene, the Indian begged to be killed, and the colonel obliged. Daniel died before he could be carried off the mountain. As a result, it was called Dan's Mountain in his honor. Before farming could be undertaken on these lands, they had to be cleared of oak and maple trees and brush. It was a slow, backbreaking task as an ox was the only source of power. But WILLIAM was a hardworking and skillful farmer by now and devoted to providing food and shelter for his wife and nine children. Shelter was the first necessity and WILLIAM first built a log cabin from trees cut on his land. Because there was no sawmill in the area, he hewed the logs into shape with a hand axe. He also used local stone to fashion a hearth and a chimney. Because glass was very expensive, he used, oiled-paper for windows. The floor was of hand hewn boards covered with deer hides and sheep pelts. The beds had mattresses stuffed with corn husks and covered with hand-woven blankets. While WILLIAM labored on the log cabin, and a crude animal shelter, ELIZABETH cared for the children and made clothes for them. She also made soap from animal fats and lye, churned butter, prepared and preserved the food stuffs and smoked the hams. It was here, in the new log cabin, that their tenth and last child, Catherine, was born in 1791.

WILLIAM was soon raising sheep, cattle and hogs on his farm, as well as corn and hay to feed them in the winter. He kept some of the corn to make his own whiskey, and took the rest of it to Cumberland to exchange it for staples and merchandise. The making of one's own whiskey was a common practice in those days. In fact, a Bill of Sale recorded in 1798 mentions that "Jonas Lovett sold his cows, sheep, horses and household goods, plus two 70-gallon copper stills, to WILLIAM JACOBS for 60 pounds." Religion played an important part in the lives of the members of the JACOBS and TROLLINGER families. They all attended the nearby Methodist Church, where Reverend William Shaw admonished them to obey the Ten Commandments and follow the teachings of Jesus. He warned them that the worst sins were debauchery, gambling and fighting. Sinners went to Hell, but those who believed in God would have fighting. Sinners went to Hell, but those who believed in God would have everlasting life.

Reverend Shaw officiated at the marriages of many of the JACOBS children, including that of William to Sarah Chess in 1790; Sarah to Jonas Lovett in 1793; JACOB to MARY SPENCER in 1802;

GABRIEL to MARGARET

JACKSON in 1805; Mathias to Margaret Potter in 1809; and Catherine to John Miller in 1809; Plus Susannah (the daughter of William (Jr.)) to Cavalier Poland in 1805.

There were no schools in George's Creek Valley when the JACOBS and TROLLINGER families arrived there, so none of their children ever attended a school. They learned to read, write and cipher at home under their parents' tutelage. Not until 1810, were some of the grandchildren of WILLIAM

JACOBS and GABRIEL DROLLINGER able to attend a private school that Reverend Shaw opened in his Methodist Church.

As the children of WILLIAM and ELIZABETH reached adulthood, they gradually left the family farm. William (Jr.) and his wife, Sarah, moved to Green County, Pennsylvania. Henry and Eli moved to Fayette County, Pennsylvania. By the time WILLIAM died on the family farm in George's Creek valley in 1816, only his daughter,

Elizabeth, remained at home. In fact, after helping to care for her aging mother, she remained a spinster after

ELIZABETH died on the farm in 1833.

Both WILLIAM and ELIZABETH were buried on the family farm, as was a custom of the day. Descendants say that they were buried under a giant oak tree there, but their graves have never been found.

Son Mathias was named executor of the estate of his parents, WILLIAM and ELIZABETH, and he managed their farm until 1847, when he sold it to William Shaw, the son of Reverend Shaw, for $200. The deed to Lot .3795 contained the following provision: "There is some doubt whether a small piece of Lot 3795 is enclosed by an enclosure, and if so Mathias Jacobs is not accountable for any land that has been taken off of same by being enclosed for over 20 years."

This provision probably refers to a burial plot on the farm that had been set aside for WILLIAM and

ELIZABETH. However, in the early 1830s, coal was discovered in George's Creek Valley and the mining operations led to the founding of the village of Lonaconing, a few miles from the JACOBS farm, in 1837. This also led to the building of a railroad in the valley to carry the coal to Cumberland, and on to the cities in the East.

A few years later, coal was discovered on Dan's Mountain near the old JACOBS family farm and William Shaw sold Lot 3795 to the Phoenix Big Vein Coal Company for a handsome profit in 1854. Subsequent surface coal mining there probably destroyed the little-marked graves of WILLIAM and ELIZABETH JACOBS.

The children of WILLIAM JACOBS and ELIZABETH TROLLINGER soon spread to many other parts of the growing nation. They and their offspring each added their own contributions to help make it a land of hope and plenty for those who would come from other shores to seek freedom and enjoy its blessings.

HUSBAND - Jacob JACOBS-2223

One e-mail on the Jacobs list said this Jacob Jacobs was descended from Zachariah Jacobs who immigrated from Wales to America in 1740, settled in CT before removing to NJ in 1780. This Jacob served as a Capt in Rev. War and had a son Gabriel, who was born 7 Jul 1781 in NJ.

Other e-mail says same as above but also says some researchers have confused this Jacob Jacobs as being the one who married Hannah Johnson and they did not have a son Gabriel but did have children:

Another e-mail said the son of Jacob Jacobs who md Hannah Johnson did not have a son named Gabriel but had children Mary, William, Sarah, Jacob Jr b. ca 1776, Rebecca, Cary and Hannah. So there maybe two Jacob Jacobs, one md Hannah Johnson and maybe one married Hannah ????

HUSBAND - Gabriel JACOBS-317

Info from the internet and then John Jacobs sent me more info on this family that he and others had researched. (Rin 2218) Other source said the Jacob Jacobs who md Hannah Johnson is not same Jacob Jacobs that was son of Zachariah Jacobs.

Info from e-mail which came from a book "The History of West Virginia, Old & New" pub 1923 started out with Cephas Jacobs, Morgantown, WV shows his ancestor was Zachariah Jacobs who immigrated from Wales to America in 1740 and who first made settlement in CT. In 1760 he removed to NY and Colonial records show that his son Jacob Jacobs served as captain in the Patriotic Army in the War of the Rev. in which he was with General Washington at Valley Forge. Gabriel, son of Capt. Jacob Jacobs was born in New Jersey 7 Jul 1781 and was a young man when he settled in Allegany Co. MD where he remained until his death Oct, 11, 1848. He married Margaret Jackson. Cephas was their son.

This is the 3rd set of parents located for Gabriel Jacobs. Was said he was son of Wiliam (Rin 312) and Margaret Drollinger (Rin 313) and said he was son of William (Rin 68) and Elizabeth Bowdle, William, son of Benjamin and Ann Hope Jacobs and now we have son of Jacob Jacobs? Who is this person? So more info on the fact he maybe son of Jacob Jacobs so have taken him off parents of Wm & Margaret for now.

In 1791, Jacob Jacobs obtained Land Grants for two adjacent properties of 88 and 270 acres on Tevebaugh Creek, (now Marion County) which he sold in 1795 to Amos Joffiffe of Frederick County. In 1796, he obtained another Land grant for 1112 acres on Tevebaugh Creek .

Jacob Jacobs is listed only once in the Harrison County tax lists, in 1802 the year before his death. His will was written in Harrison County on Mar 3, 1803.

Jacob's wife, Hannah is listed in all the deed transfers, including the last one in 1798. Revolution, in which he was with General Washington at Valley Forge. Gabriel, son of Capt. Jacob Jacobs, was born in New Jersey, July 7, 1781, and was a young man when he settled in Allegany County, Maryland, where he remained until his death, October 11, 1848. He married Margaret Jackson, who was born May 27, 1783, and died October 20, 1855. Cephas Jacobs, son of Gabriel and Margaret Jacobs, was reared on his fathers farm in Allegany County, Maryland, and from that state he came to West Virginia, then a part of Virginia, in 1853, and settled in Preston County, where he engaged in farming and where he built and operated grist and saw mills and a tannery. There he continued his residence until 1869, when he moved to a farm on the west side of Monongahela River in Grant District, Monongalia County, opposite the City of Morgantown. He there continued as one of the substantial exponents of farm industrrrrrrrtry in the country until 1892, when he moved to Morgantown, in which city he passed the remainder of his life. He was one of the organizers and became president of the First National Building & Loan Association at Charlestown, this state, and was a director of the Second National Bank of Morgantown. He was a staunch republican, and he served two terms as justice of the peace in Grant District and one term as a member of the city council of Morgantown. He was affiliated with Morgantown Union Lodge No. 4, Free and Accepted Masons, and he and his wife were zealous members of the First Methodist Episcopal Church at Morgantown.

April 10, 1851, recorded the marriage of Cephas Jacobs with Margaret Ann Ravenscraft, daughter of Abner and Nancy (Corbus) Ravenscraft, of Maryland, and she survived him by nearly twelve years, her death having occurred September 13 1914.

Elmer Forrest Jacobs, son of Cephas and Margaret Ann Jacobs, was born on the home farm of his father on Bird's Creek, Preston County, this state, June 11, 1866, and was three years old at the time of the family removal to Monongalia County, where he was reared to manhood, recieved the discipline of the public schools and finally entered the University of West Virginia, with the intention of preparing himself for the profession of civic engineering. But upon the advice of Col. T. Moore Jackson, then at the head of the School of Engineering, West Virginia University, Mr. Jacobs decided to take up architecture, Colonel Jackson having given him special insructions along this line. He was impatient at the delay in placing himself in a position to earn a salary, and on this account left the university and entered the office of J.L. Beatty, an architect in the City of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He remained five years with Mr. Beatty and gained a thorough technical and practical training in the architectural art and science. In 1893 he assumed charge of designing and construction with the Pittsburgh firm of W.A. Hoeveller & Company, and later he became superintendant of construction for the Standard Sanitary Manufacturing Company of Pittsburgh.

In the fall of 1894 Mr. Jacobs opened an office in Morgantown, where he now stands virtually at the head of his profession in this part of West Virginia, as well as being the oldest architect in point of experience and continous practice at Morgantown. Among many important buildings designed by and erected under the supervision of Mr. Jacobs are the Madeira (formerly the Franklin) Hotel; Woodburn Hall and an addition to Science Hall, of the University of West Virginia; chapter houses of the Sigma Chi, Beta Theta Pi, Kappa Alpha, Phi Sigma Kappa, Phi Kappa Psi and Phi Kappa Sigma fraternities at the State University; Farmers and Merchants Bank; the old post office at Morgantown, which was the first fire-proof building in this section of the state and is now occupied by the Union Savings and Trust Company; the plant of the Seneca Glass Company; plant of the Union Stopper Company; Fourth Ward School building; First Methodist Protestant Church, Morgantown; First Methodist Episcopal Church, Mount Morris, Pennsylvania; and residences of George C. Baker, William Moorhead, J. H. Mc Dermott, J.C. McVicker, Francis Heermans, J.C. Frazier, and many others of the most modern type in Morgantown and vicinity. Mr. Jacobs is a member of the American Institute of Architects, his affiliation with that organization dating from May 24, 1902.

He married Miss M. Ella Wood daughter of the late A.C. Wood, of Morgantown, and they have two children. Virginia is the wife of Allen Bowie, of Wheeling, this state, and they have one child, Mary Eleanor. David Wood Jacobs is at the time of this writing, in 1921, a student in the Morgantown High School.

Subject: [JACOBS] WILLIAM JACOBS (& WIFE SYBIL) IN BROWN CO., OHIO 1802

Here is some information that might be helpful to the William - Sybil researchers. In researching our Jacobs for over 20 years we thought many times that this William was ours. But it was finally proven not to be. I think I posted this a long time ago on the list. It was written by Madelyn Hahan. She researched with Margaret Ketron and I for about 9 years. Madelyn in California, Margaret in Ohio and me and Ohio transplant to SC.

SOLVING THE PUZZLE OF WILLIAM JACOBS (& WIFE SYBIL) IN BROWN CO., OHIO 1802 -

By Madelyn L. Hahn Los Angeles, California

Putting the puzzle together began for me by placing a query in the Clermont, Co., Ohio Genealogical Society's newsletter concerning my ancestress Delilah Jacobs who had been married to John Edwards of Brown Co., Ohio, and had moved over to Clermont Co. in the 1840's. The, only person to answer that query was Margaret I. Ketron of Eaton, Ohio, who descends from-Thornton Jacobs of Brown Co. who, married Merribeh Howland.

Margaret and I began a correspondence and a search of the Jacobses, which has uncovered more than we ever imagined. She already had done much research on the various Jacobs families in Brown Co., so soon we were branching out to Mason Co., Kentucky, where we found William Jacobs living in 1795 in the Lee's Creek area (FHL film #8140: Mason Co. Ky. Tax Records 1792-1809). William moved over to Adams/Brown Co. in 1802 and was in Byrd Township in 1803, as shown by male enumeration lists of Adams Co.

This William and his wife, Sybil, seemed to be likely parents of our Thornton and Delilah, and yet we wondered about the Sarah Jacobs with children nearby (1820 Brown Co. Census, Page 340). Sarah had been Head of Household in Mason Co. also (1810 Census, Mason Co. Ky., Page 54). Only after discovering a wonderful Bible record did we prove what we had suspected: that Sarah was indeed the parent of our Thornton and Delilah, and with more research we proved that all the Jacobses very early in Brown Co. are related - except William and Sybil. Where did they fit in? Perhaps William was recorded in the Bible as born 1770? Thus began our research

Sybil's family, the Littles, seemed to be the place to start because we knew that Sybil had testified in court for her sister Rhoda Rilea's application for a widow's pension in 1839 (Brown Co. Court of Common Pleas, Sept. Term 1839). Rhoda Little and Richard Rilea had married 19 June 1793 at Morgantown (W.) Virginia (Monongalia Co.) and had settled in Brown Co., Ohio, where Richard Rilea died in August, 1839 (Abstracts of Revolutionary War Pension Files,, Virgil D. White, Page 2891). In her affidavit, Sybil said she did not attend her sister's wedding, but was living about 10 miles from where they set up housekeeping in 1793. This showed that William and Sybil were in Monongalia Co., W. Virginia, however, we thought they were only passing through on their way to Kentucky and Ohio. Further research turned up some Little/Littell families in Monongalia Co. and a William Jacobs on tax records who was there from 1793 to 1796 (FHL Film # 464,965: Monongalia Co. West Virginia Misc. Records, Item 11, Land Taxes).

We had learned of a Jacob Jacobs of Monongalia Co. (W.) Virginia was being researched by Caryl Simpson of Pekin, Illinois. Caryl's chart showed a son, William, with sisters, Rebecca Frazee and Hannah Harbert. This seemed similar to a query placed in 1966 by a Ralph Schroeder in the "Ohio Records & Pioneer Families" (Vol. 7, Pg. 95) asking about a "Wm. Jacobs of Brown Co. Ohio ca. 1800; came from 'Sandy Glades - had sisters Rebecca Frazee (Mason Co. KY.) and Mrs. Harper (Urbana, OH area)' area". For a long time we had thought this query was about a William Jacobs born m 1800 until one day we saw that it could mean a William Jacobs of or living in Brown Co. ca. 1800. Suddenly there was the possibility that William of Brown Co. could be the son of Jacob Jacobs of Monongalia Co., W. Virginia. Maybe William and Sybil actually lived there and were not just passing through.

Pieces of the puzzle were coming together. A Harbert researcher told us that Jacob Jacobs' daughter, Hannah Harbert, had indeed moved to near Urbana (Champaign Co., ____) and had died there ca. 1842.

Margaret tried to contact Ralph Schroeder who had placed the 1966 query, but was told that no such person lived in his town, Marietta, Ohio. With more effort and persistence she found- someone who W some of the deceased Mr. Schroeder's papers and they sent them to us. In a letter written in 1967 in reply to a response to his query, Mr. Schroeder gave the -source for his information about William Jacobs and his sisters as Frances Frazee Hamilton's book, Ancestral Lines of the Doniphan, Frazee, and Hamilton Families' (Greenfield, Ind.: Wm. Mitchell Printing Co., 1928).

Our next step was to find that book. My "computer savvy" daughter knew that all of the holdings of the Los Angeles Public Library system were available online. When asked to look for the book she found that it was in the Genealogical Dept. of the main library downtown. What we found in the book was an account written in 1886 by a Dr. Lewis Frazee about his grandparent Samuel Frazee and Rebecca Jacobs Frazee. The following are some statements of

On pages 351-353. "Samuel ... came in the early days from New Jersey to Virginia, thence to Kentucky in 1778. He returned to Sandy Glades, now in Pennsylvania, then claimed by Virginia, and married Miss Rebecca Jacobs."

On page 502: "My grandmother, Rebecca Jacobs Frazee ... died in 1837, at the age of about sixty-eight. ... I remember to have seen one of her brothers, Uncle William Jacobs, who lived at the time in Brown County, Ohio, a neighbor to Uncle Thomas S. Doniphan I remember to have seen one of her sisters also, Mrs.. Harper, from in or near Urbana, Ohio She and her daughter, Anna, visited my grandmother some time before her death."

A look at the 1830 Brown Co. Census index verified that a Thomas S. Doniphan was a neighbor of William Jacobs, both listed on Page 406 in Byrd Twp.

At this point, we know we had solved the puzzle - that William Jacobs surely was the son of Jacob and Hannah (Johnson) Jacobs of Monongalia Co., (W.) Virginia. Jacob Jacobs, we know, had settled on Dockers Creek (now near Morgantown) in 1776 or earlier (FHL Film 843,813: Monongalia Co., W. Va. Land Surveys, 1781-1861, Book 11, Pg. 232). Jacob and his wife Hannah became members of the Forks of Cheat Baptist Church by baptism: she in 1781 and he on 3 Jan. 1782. In 1802, Hannah Jacobs was given a letter of dismission from the church to any other church of like faith (FHL Film # 163,902: Misc. Records of Monongalia Co., and Forks of Cheat Baptist Church Minute Book No. 1, Pgs. 4, 22, 23). Perhaps they left the church and moved to Harrison Co. where their daughter, Hannah Harbert, lived at that time. Jacob made his Will there dated 3 Mar. 1803 in which he mentions his son William and daughters Rebecca Frazer and Hannah Harbert, among others (FHL Film # 163,721: Abstracts of Harrison Co., W. Va., Wills Book I, Pgs. 160, 357).

Now that we have put enough pieces of the puzzle, together to verify that William and Sybil are not of our Jacobs family lines, Margaret Ketron and I will leave further research to those who descend from their children:

Levi Jacobs who married Mary L. Beaty Eliza Jane, Jacobs who married John T. Reeves William J. Jacobs who married Zoa Wilkes and possibly others, including Hannah Jacobs who married Alexander Feely.

Subject: [JACOBS] Thomas Harbert Jr. married Hannah Jacobs in 1790

Here is some more information that was with the William -Sybil info. I'm sorry to say I'm not sure who wrote this.

Harbert Family Stories

Thomas Harbert Jr. married Hannah Jacobs in 1790 in Virginia and purchased his first land, a 112-acre tract on Jones Run, on March 21, 1791. This property was deeded to him by his brother, Samuel Harbert, for 10 pounds Virginia currency. Hannah's father, Jacob Jacobs, was a descendant of the Dutch who established a presence in New York. Jacob was married to Hannah Johnson in 1761 and settled at Deckers Creek in 1776. Native Americans continued to be a problem for the settlers in this region. The isolation increased the threat. Transportation was by foot, horse, and wagon; with neighbors a distance away, visiting was difficult without roads.

Thomas and Hannah had nine children and established a successful farm. Life on the farm was hard. The buildings in this time were constructed of hand-hewn logs and lumber. The logs were secured together with wooden pegs made in the carpentry shop and boards were fastened with nails forged in the blacksmith shop. These buildings were roofed with shingles split from white oak logs. The bears in the area were so numerous and so fond of pork that hogs could not be raised. Thomas was one of the few slave holders in this region. Each farm was a self-sufficient entity. Meats, fruits, and vegetables were preserved by drying or by salting. These foodstuffs hung along the walls of the cabins. Thomas was also a surveyor and surveyed many properties and roads in the adjoining Territory of Ohio. He laid land warrants (or claims) on considerable land. Their eldest child, born in 1791, was also named Thomas. Along with the names of the other children we conclude that Thomas and Hannah were! very familiar with the Bible: Joseph, Elias, Rebecca, William, Elisha, Mary, Vianna, and Elijah.

Thomas Harbert Jr. died in 1818. Family legend suggests that he met with foul play. According to a Harbert descendent, Thomas "was persuaded by a friend? to make a trip down the Ohio River to Arkansas to look over the country, which then was new and unsettled, with a view to buying land and moving there to live. The friend? returned alone saying my Great Grandfather [Thomas] had died on the trip in the wilderness. He persuaded the widow to let him settle the estate and cheated her out of nearly everything she had. This was easily done because in those days the wives of slave owners had slaves to do all the house work and also had no business experience whatever. It was always thought that the friend? planned the whole matter beforehand and murdered my Great Grandfather to get the property." Half of Thomas's children had moved away from Harrison County by the time of his death. In about 1820, Hannah (Jacobs) Harbert remarried to Isaac Hagle. There was a major disagreement between Hannah and her children which resulted in the children filing a law suit in Chancery Court against Hannah and Isaac to divide Thomas Jr.'s estate. "Thomas Harbert departed from life sometime in 1818 in they set up housekeeping in 1793. This showed that William and Sybil were in Monongalia Co., W. Virginia, however, we thought they were only passing through on their way to Kentucky and Ohio. Further research turned up some Little/Littell families in Monongalia Co. and a William Jacobs on tax records who was there from 1793 to 1796 (FHL Film # 464,965: Monongalia Co. West Virginia Misc.! Records, Item 11, Land Taxes).

We had learned of a Jacob Jacobs of Monongalia Co. (W.) Virginia was being researched by Caryl Simpson of Pekin, Illinois. Caryl's chart showed a son, William, with sisters, Rebecca Frazee and Hannah Harbert. This seemed similar to a query placed in 1966 by a Ralph Schroeder in the "Ohio Records & Pioneer Families" (Vol. 7, Pg. 95) asking about a "Wm. Jacobs of Brown Co. Ohio ca. 1800; came from 'Sandy Glades - had sisters Rebecca Frazee (Mason Co. KY.) and Mrs. Harper (Urbana, OH area)"area)". For a long time we had thought this query was about a William Jacobs born m 1800 until one day we saw that it could mean a William Jacobs of or living in Brown Co. ca. 1800. Suddenly there was the possibility that William of Brown Co. could be the son of Jacob Jacobs of Monongalia Co., W. Virginia. Maybe William and Sybil actually lived there and were not just passing through.

Pieces of the puzzle were coming together. A Harbert researcher told us that Jacob Jacobs' daughter, Hannah Harbert, had indeed moved to near Urbana (Champaign Co., ____) and had died there ca. 1842.

Margaret tried to contact Ralph Schroeder who had placed the 1966 query, but was told that no such person lived in his town, Marietta, Ohio. With more effort and persistence she found- someone who W some of the deceased Mr. Schroeder's papers and they sent them to us. In a letter written in 1967 in reply to a response to his query, Mr. Schroeder gave the -source for his information about William Jacobs and his sisters as Frances Frazee Hamilton's book, 'Ancestral Lines of the Doniphan, Frazee, and Hamilton Families' (Greenfield, Ind.: Wm. Mitchell Printing Co., 1928).

Our next step was to find that book. My "computer savvy" daughter knew that all of the holdings of the Los Angeles Public Library system were available online. When asked to look for the book she found that it was in the Genealogical Dept. of the main library downtown. What we found in the book was an account written in 1886 by a Dr. Lewis Frazee about his grandparent Samuel Frazee and Rebecca Jacobs Frazee. The following are some statements of

Dr. Frazee.

On pages 351-353. "Samuel ... came in the early days from New Jersey to Virginia, thence to Kentucky in 1778. He returned to Sandy Glades, now in Pennsylvania, then claimed by Virginia, and married Miss Rebecca Jacobs."

On page 502: "My grandmother, Rebecca Jacobs Frazee ... died in 1837, at the age of about sixty-eight. ... I remember to have seen one of her brothers, Uncle William Jacobs, who lived at the time in Brown County, Ohio, a neighbor to Uncle Thomas S. Doniphan I remember to have seen one of her sisters also, Mrs.. Harper, from in or near Urbana, Ohio She and her daughter, Anna, visited my grandmother some time before her death."

This showed that William and Sybil were in Monongalia Co., W.

A look at the 1830 Brown Co. Census index verified that a Thomas S. Doniphan was a neighbor of William Jacobs, both listed on Page 406 in Byrd Twp.

At this point, we know we had solved the puzzle - that William Jacobs surely was the son of Jacob and Hannah (Johnson) Jacobs of Monongalia Co., (W.) Virginia. Jacob Jacobs, we know, had settled on Dockers Creek (now near Morgantown) in 1776 or earlier (FHL Film 843,813: Monongalia Co., W. Va. Land Surveys, 1781-1861, Book 11, Pg. 232). Jacob and his wife Hannah became members of the Forks of Cheat Baptist Church by baptism: she in 1781 and he on 3 Jan. 1782. In 1802, Hannah Jacobs was given a letter of dismission from the church to any other church of like faith (FHL Film # 163,902: Misc. Records of Monongalia Co., and Forks of Cheat Baptist Church Minute Book No. 1, Pgs. 4, 22, 23). Perhaps they left the church and moved to Harrison Co. where their daughter, Hannah Harbert, lived at that time. Jacob made his Will there dated 3 Mar. 1803 in which he mentions his son William and daughters Rebecca Frazer and Hannah Harbert, among others (FHL Film # 163,721: Abstracts of Harrison Co., W. Va., Wills Book I, Pgs. 160, 357).

Now that we have put enough pieces of the puzzle, together to verify that William and Sybil are not of our Jacobs family lines, Margaret Ketron and I will leave further research to those who descend from their children:

Levi Jacobs who married Mary L. Beaty Eliza Jane, Jacobs who married John T. Reeves William J. Jacobs who married Zoa Wilkes and possibly others, including Hannah Jacobs who married Alexander Feely.

Descendants of John McGlumphy/McClumpha, Sr

Generation No. 1

1. JOHN¹ MCGLUMPHY/MCCLUMPHA, SR was born 1755 in Armagh, Ulster, Ireland, and died 18 April 1809 in Greene Co PA. He married (1) UNKNOWN Abt. 1777 in Ireland. She was born Abt. 1755 in Ireland, and died Abt. 1787 in unknown. He married (2) MARY "MOLLY" PEES/PEASE Abt. 1787, daughter of NICKOLAS PEES and HANNA. She was born 1754 in Canigungig, PA, and died 22 November 1848 in Morrisville, Greene Co PA, Bell Cem..

Notes for JOHN MCGLUMPHY/MCCLUMPHA, SR:

John McClumpha was born about 1755 in Armagh Ireland or possibly Scotland. McClumpha or McGlumphy, was probably originally Scottish, and came from the Clan Kennedy in the Stewartry of Krikcudbright of the lowlands of Scotland, now known as Galloway. At some time the McClumpha family migrated from Scotland to Ireland, probably during "the killing time", and became residents of "The Ulster" of Armagh in Northern Ireland. (this part above is speculation not necessarily true)

John McGlumphy the first came to America and maybe with his wife (but no proof of his wife being with him, or what happened to his first wife) and sons John and Edward. The boys were only about 3 and 6 years old when coming to Philadelphia in the 1783. On the 1788 tax list he first appeared at Washington County, Pennsylvania. He was listed in the 1790 census at "Head of Household" in that census year in Strabane township, Washington County PA. He served with the Washington County Militia between 1790-1800. John after he emigrated from Ireland and he had moved to Washington County Pennsylvania he married his second wife Mary "Molly" Pees or Pease, as some spell it. She was the daughter of Nicholas Pees (he was born in Germany) and Hannah. They had 7 more children: sons, Nicholas; Triplets - William, Hugh M.; and Andrew; a son Samuel the youngest, and two daughters that their names are unknown at this time. John McGlumphy lived the rest of his life on the farm in Strabane township. He died 18 April 1809, leaving a will which named only his wife "Molly". His burial place is uncertain. Molly Pees McGlumphy moved to Morris township Greene Co PA sometime after 1810 and lived with one of her sons in that township until she died 22 November 1848 near the Beulah Cemetery, where she is buried. At that the foot of her grave is a marker that has JM on it, some think it is her husband John McGlumphy marker. (some taken from the Ten Mile book; and other books of Greene Co PA;) Listed in Black's History of the Clans of Scotland, McClumpha and ancient clan now extinct. ("Mac" meaning son of...)

1784-1793 John appeared on the Washington County tax lists. In 1788 he was polled for tax in Washington County but he paid no tax as at that time taxes were based on the number of windows in your home. It is believed that he was a tradesman as no record of a farm has been found.

1790 census John Sr was still a resident of Washington Co, with his two sons John Jr and Edward along with new wife "Molly" they lived near other Scots-Irish ie Nicholas Pees, John Wright, William Campbell and Andrew Pees. The main industry coal mining. John's will is on file at Washington Co courthouse Vol 44, page 210 will bk. filed 9 May 1809.

1810 census shows Molly was still living in Strabane Township with four sons, Nicholas 18, William and Hugh 16 and Samuel 10.

1820 census shows Molly in Strabane with son William 1830 census shows Molly now 76 still in Strabane probably with her son Andrew while Samuel lived nearby

1848 Molly died on November 22nd at age 94 and is buried at Beulah Cemetery which is just across the Greene Co Line NW of Nineveh, Morris Township, Greene Co, PA

Returning East, with the aid of one horse, upon which were placed his worldly effects and the youngest child, he moved to the new home the whole journey being made by himself, wife, son and daughter on foot. Mr. Pees was one of the three first settlers of the township. Here was born children as follows: Nicholas, Catherine, Bestsey, and Susan. All of his children but Nicholas were married and raised families.

Nicholas died at the advanced age of 105 years. In physique he was indeed a "Stalwart," being six feet and one inch in stature, and well proportioned. He was capable of great physical endurance. Descendants of John McGlumphy/McClumpha, Sr

2. JOHN B² MCGLUMPHY, JR (JOHN¹ MCGLUMPHY/MCCLUMPHA, SR) was born 1778 in Armagh, Ulster, Ireland, and died 06 February 1858 in Greene Co PA. He married LYDIA ANN SMITH 1794 in Washington, Co PA, daughter of NOAH SMITH and ANNA HOGE. She was born 1780 in Monmouth City NJ, and died 1850 in Greene Co PA.

Notes for JOHN B MCGLUMPHY, JR:

John McGlumphy, Jr., was born around 1778 in Armagh, Ireland, which is the northern province in the part of Ireland called the Ulster Region.

He came to the United States when he was around 5 or 6 years old, with his father John McGlumphy, Sr. and his brother, Edward, who was around 3 or 4 years old. The boys were raised by their step mother Mary "Molly" Pees McGlumphy, after they had moved to a small settlement of Eighty-Four, which is east of "Little" Washington Pennsylvania.

About 1800 John McGlumphy, Jr., married Lydia Ann Smith (ca 1780-1849) born in Monmouth County, New Jersey, the daughter of Noah Smith and Anne Hoge who were Quakers and lived in Morgan Township, Greene Co PA. The Smith's were an old Quaker family in America, with ties going back to the 1600 on Long Island, New York, Connecticut, and early New Jersey. Lydia was a descendant of the Willetts-Washburne line, whose family descended from some of the royal families of England and France.

Although Lydia Smith had come from a Quaker background, she was not a Quaker when she married John McGlumphy. John and Lydia joined the Ten Mile Baptist Church nearby their home in Center Township. John McGlumphy represented the area at the National Baptist Convention at Philadelphia.

The 1800 Greene County, PA., census lists John and Lydia Smith McGlumphy as residents of Morgan Township. John was 22, and Lydia 20, and they had a infant daughter named Nancy Anna McGlumphy, named for Lydia mother, Anna Hoge Smith. In 1810 they were living in Franklin Township. Nearby was John's brother, Edward and family, and also neighbors the Poland, Roseberry, Strosnider, and Wilson, all of whom would marry into the McGlumphy Clan.

John entered into a deed from George Remley in 1811 for 440 Acres of land in Richhill Township. John's brother, Edward McGlumphy had a near by tract of land which he named "Armagh."

During the war of 1812 John McGlumphy, Jr., served with the Pennsylvania Militia, as his father before him had served with the Washington County Militia between 1790-1800. John Jr., received a Bounty Land Warrant for his service dated 27 December 1816 which he applied to 130 acres in Center township of Greene County on Mirandy Run a branch of the Ten Mile Creek, west of Rogersville. This was a "pie-shaped wedge" in the western end. surveyed 3 October 1827. Patented 20 December 1831 to John McGlumphy (H-30-509) His neighbors included Isaac Ross; Henry Postlethwaite; Andrew Buchanan; Thomas Hoge; Perry Bayard; William Scott; and William Morton. It is though this is the place both he and wife Lydia died and are buried. Burials not found to date(1997) the family farm is listed in the "Horn Papers Map Book."

By 1820 John and Lydia had 10 children. They and nine of these children were listed in the 1820 Center Township census. John was 42, Lydia 40, Hugh was 18, two younger sons, John III was 7 an Isaac was 2. Daughters were Sara, age 17, Lavina 16, Elizabeth 12, Mary 10, Kesiah 6, and Susannah was 2. The oldest daughter, Nancy, was about 20 and newly married to Reasin/Rezin Wright, and they lived nearby in Richhill Township.

by 1830 John and Lydia had three more daughters, Eliza b. 1821, and two others, names Unknown, who were born between 1820-1830. On daughter died shortly after 1840 and the other before 1850. There is not record known of their names.

In the 1840's census John was 62, and Lydia was 60, and still living with them were two of their daughters, between ages of 10 and 15.

Their daughter Kesiah married Samuel Poland 6 September 1832, an son John Smith McGlumphy married Elizabeth Knight 13 November 1832; Daughter Eliza married Perry Lyons around 1836. The youngest son, Isaac married Elizabeth Rale by 1839

Both of Lydia's parents, Noah and Anna Hoge Smith, had died Noah in December 1835 and Anna 10 March 1838, Greene County PA.

There are no grave makers, as being Quakers they did not believe in it, and that it was a showy display. Lydia died before 1850, no marker of grave sight or really know where she is buried. She was the mother of thirteen children, twelve of whom were then living, and the grandmother of at least 47! She was in her sixty's and had lived all of her adult life in Greene County Pennsylvania, having Came from Monmouth County, New Jersey with her parents to Greene County by 1790.

By the time the 1850 Greene County Census was taken John McGlumphy age 72, had retired, and was living with his son, Hugh McGlumphy in Richhill Township. He has real estate valued at 1200.00. He wrote a lengthy will on June 27, 1856, but did not die until February of 1858. he was approximately 80 years old.

Ten of his 13 children were still living. He had 86 grandchildren, at least 2 more grandchildren were born after his death. Leaving quite a living legacy.

From about 100 direct living descendants in 1859, there are probably a thousand living today. Included are those not only named McGlumphy, but also Wright, Kinney, Carter, Headley, Rutan, Pettit, Silvey, Hoge, Babbitt, Lough/Loughman, Williams, Nelson, Funk, Loar, Mumbauer, Durbin, Poland, Clark, Blout, Lewis, Scott, Lyon as well as many others of the succeeding generations.

Descendants of John McGlumphy/McClumpha, Sr

15. KESIAH³ MCGLUMPHY (JOHN B², JOHN¹ MCGLUMPHY/MCCLUMPHA, SR) was born 1815 in Greene Co PA, and died Abt. 1876 in Wayne Co IA.. She married (1) SAMUEL WARREN POLAND 06 September 1832 in Greene Co PA, son of CAVALIER POLAND and SUSANNA JACOBS. He was born 1808 in Greene Co PA, and died 1856 in Harrison, Co VA (WV) g. unknown where buried or if buried. She married (2) JESSE NELSON Bef. 1860 in Greene Co PA. He was born 1803 in VA, and died Bef. 1870.

Notes for KESIAH MCGLUMPHY:

Kesiah McGlumphy, born around 1815 in Center Township, Greene Co, PA. The actual date of her birth is unknown. she was called "Kizzy" by her family. Her name comes from the Bible. Kesiah was one of Job's Daughters. She married Samuel Poland on 6 September 1831 in Greene Co PA. He was the son of Cavalier C. and Susannah Jacobs Poland. Samuel was born in 1808, Maybe Allegany county Maryland. The actual birth date and place is unknown. The family moved from Allegany county Maryland to Greene Co PA shortly after his birth.

Kesiah & Samuel had 10 children. She also had stomach problems, some think that could have caused her death.

Kesiah was married to Jesse Nelson around 1858-1860. It is unknown when they married. In the 1860 census she is listed as his wife and her children are listed Elijah, John, and Emily as being Poland. It is unknown when Jesse died, or what happened to him. Jesse was a hired hand of Cavalier Poland, Kesiah's father-in-law, at the time she married him. The youngest child Emily, it is said that she is a Nelson not a Poland, but this is not proven to be so either way. She is not listed on Cavalier Poland will as the other children of Samuel were. but yet she is listed as a Poland on the 1860's census, and when Kesiah father will was read and made out she was still a Poland in 1858.

Kesiah went to Illinois, with Elijah, John and Emily. Elijah met and married his wife Martha Shoup, and Kesiah moved on with John and Emily to Iowa, where she lived with her son Cal until her death in about 1876 in Walnut Township, Wayne County Iowa. She is buried in Bollman Chapel Cemetery, her grave is not marked.

Notes for SAMUEL WARREN POLAND:

Samuel Poland, death is surrounded by mystery, it is unknown just when he died. Samuel Poland disappeared out of Sistersville, WV by 1856. After a mysterious fire at there house. The Poland family said footprints were seen heading for the Ohio River. there is no trace of Samuel death or burial place has ever been found. Weather he died in that mysterious fire, or some other place at a later date is not known. Samuel, was a well-known character to his great grandchildren. They love to tell of his escapades while under the influence of "John Barleycorn" alcohol. It has also been said that the family was moving "West" out of Pennsylvania when he disappeared.

Source Carol Rein Shwyder.

Samuel middle name was said to be Jacobs, but his grandson Benjamin Warren Poland was named after his two grandfathers, Benjamin Shoup and Samuel Warren Poland. Sourse, family that still carries that name, Warren Poland. So who really knows? what is in a middle name anyway?

Obituary

Death of Ham Poland The Times Republican Dec. 3, 1903\

Ham Poland, of Clay township, who was badly hurt by being thrown from a moving machine in August last, full particulars of which were published in these column at the time, died at his home on Monday last. The facts as then published were that Mr. Poland was thrown backward from his machine and the horses backed the machine against him so seriously injuring his spine that he was unable to move when found an hour after the accident. He was taken to his home and remained in same condition, except a small movement of hands, until death came to his relief as above stated. Mr. Poland came to Iowa in about 1870, buying his present farm in 1875. He was a sober, honest, industrious Citizen, very highly respected by his neighbors and enjoyed the confidence of all who knew him. He wife died in January last, after being an invalid and unable to help herself, his youngest daughter being his housekeeper at time of accident. His sufferings were terrible and so no doubt death was a great relief. He was buried on Wednesday at the Morford cemetery in Richman township. Thus passes away a citizen beloved by all who knew him.

The rest of the sources are from the marriage record, and from his head stone at Secor IL, Cemetery. Along with word of mouth from William Poland one of his grandsons that was born in 1897. As he would relate what Grand pa Elijah was all about.

Elijah homestead this farm, he built the house and the out buildings that was on there. They use to hold Saturday night square dancing in the barn from about 1900 to 1920's. The talent part of the families, The Poland's Therio's, Dixon's all played for the dances and many of his grandsons was the caller of the square dances. Elijah for what the family that knew him said he was a quite man, and worked very hard, a very religious person, Wm Poland, a grandson of Elijah, remembered that one summer night around 1913- James and Mary with children was visiting grandpa and grandma, and the stars started to fall from the sky, Elijah took everyone in the house and had the children get under the table in the kitchen, for he said the world was coming to a end.

The old Farm had been in the family until 1990 when it was sold. No one wanted to farm it anymore. And it was becoming harder to maintain it.

The farm was handed down to Benjamin, then Hank, and it was in Hank's family until they sold it.

It is told that she never had any trouble with giving birth to her children, she would have a pain and the child was born. She died because of diabetes, she also was in the early stages of Alzheimer. Last days of her life, she was in a chair, and had to be cared for. She received a pension from her son Clarence, that died in WWI, he was a ambulance driver, and caught the Spanish flu, and as they were taking him up the stairs, he died on the stairs. He left a sweet heart Elsie Bussie. They all mourned his departure, he has a grave site at Exeland Wisc. Cem.

Mary and her hubby James are buried together at the Summit Church Cem. at Peabody KS. Mary's daughter in law Clare and son is also buried there not far from them. This cemetery is not kept very well. But on the most part someone mows the grass.

When the Poland's moved from Florance and went to Sargent Missouri, they left all of Clare's things packed up in the corner of the house.

Harvey being born in 1840 and being 18 when the 1860 census was taken he must have been born either Dec 1840 or Jan 1841 reason being, that he was 19 when enlisted in Sep 1861 and 18 in Aug 8, 1860 when the census was taken. He must have been only 9 or 10 months apart from his sister Eliza J. Unless he lied when he interned into the military, as far as his age and being born 1840 but born late in 1841 or early 1842. this would fit the age better. this is according to the documenting the 1860 Census and the enlistment into the service. John,
I don't know if this will help or hinder. Go to ANCESTRY.COM, type in Jacob Jacobs. When that comes up, scroll down to bottom and in box for spouse, type in Hannah Johnson. When that page comes up, should be first on the list, Capt. Jacob Jacobs, click on the POST-1800. You will find a biography about Captain Jacobs from the History of West Virginia. His Captain Jacobs m. Margaret Ann Johnson. He was a son of Gabriel Jacobs and Mary - Johnson. Gabriel was the son of Jacob Jacobs, who was a captain in Revolution. Jacob was the son of Zachariah Jacobs.

For sure, I can throw up something. That particular Ancestry file is incorrect, because Jacob Jacobs who married Hannah Johnson 14 Jan 1764 in Appomattox, VA (1817 Marriage Colonial Ec. 1685-1818) and Emily added in Harrison Co. (W) VA, was not the son of Zachariah Jacobs or the father of Gabriel Jacobs.

All shown in the Harrison Co. W VA Jacob Jacobs will 17-1818 mentions 1 wife, William and Jacob and 3 daus., Rebecca Emery, Mary Griffith (m. John), Sarah Pugh, Cary Bennett and Hannah Herbert.

I hope this helps.

Subject: [JACOBS] Cephas- Gabriel- Captain Jacob-Zachariah Jacobs

The History of West Virginia, Old and New Published 1923, The American Historical Society, Inc. Chicago and New York, Volume 11

Cephas Jacobs- Morgantown, WV Cephas Jacobs became a resident of West Virginia as now constited, in the year 1853, and was one of the venerable and honored citizens of Morgantown, Monongalia County, at the time of his death, on the 2d of February, 1903. He was born in Allegany County, Maryland, January 8. 1826, and was a descendant of Zachariah Jacobs, who immigrated from Wales to America in 1740, and who first made settlement in Connecticut. In 1760 he removed to New Jersey, and Colonial records show that his son Jacob Jacobs served as captain in the Patriotic Army in the War of the Revolution, in which he was with General Washington at Valley Forge. Gabriel, son of Capt. Jacob Jacobs, was born in New Jersey, July 7. 1781, and was a young man when he settled in Allegany County, Maryland, where he remained until his death, October 11, 1848. He married Margaret Jackson, who was born May 27, 1783, and died October 20, 1855. Cephas Jacobs, son of Gabriel and Margaret Jacobs, was reared on his fathers farm in Allegany County, Maryland, and from that state he came to West Virginia, then a part of Virginia, in 1853, and settled in Preston County, where he engaged in farming and where he built and operated grist and saw mills and a tannery. There he continued his residence until 1869, when he moved to a farm on the west side of Monongahela River in Grant District, Monongalia County, opposite the City of Morgantown. He there continued as one of the substantial exponents of farm industry in the country until 1892, when he moved to Morgantown, in which city he passed the remainder of his life. He was one of the organizers and became president of the First National Building & Loan Association at Charlestown, this state, and was a director of the Second National Bank of Morgantown. He was a staunch republican, and he served two terms as justice of the peace in Grant District and one term as a member of the city council of Morgantown. He was affiliated with Morgantown Union Lodge No. 4, Free and Accepted Masons, and he and his wife were zealous members of the First Methodist Episcopal Church at Morgantown. April 10, 1851, recorded the marriage of Cephas Jacobs with Margaret Ann Ravenscraft, daughter of Abner and Nancy (Corbus) Ravenscraft, of Maryland, and she survived him by nearly twelve years, her death having occurred September 13 1914. Elmer Forrest Jacobs, son of Cephas and Margaret Ann Jacobs, was born on the home farm of his father on Bird's Creek, Preston County, this state, June 11. 1866, and was three years old at the time of the family removal to Monongalia County, where he was reared to manhood, recieved the discipline of the public schools and finally entered the University of West Virginia, with the intention of preparing himself for the profession of civic engineering. But upon the advice of Col. T. Moore Jackson, then at the head of the School of Engineering, West Virginia University, Mr. Jacobs decided to take up architecture, Colonel Jackson having given him special insructions along this line. He was impatient at the delay in placing himself in a position to earn a salary, and on this account left the university and entered the office of J.L. Beatty, an architect in the City of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He remained five years with Mr. Beatty and gained a thorough technical and practical training in the architectural art and science. In 1893 he assumed charge of designing and construction with the Pittsburgh firm of W.A. Hoeveller & Company, and later he became superintendent of construction for the Standard Sanitary Manufacturing Company of Pittsburgh. In the fall of 1894 Mr. Jacobs opened an office in Morgantown, where he now stands virtually at the head of his profession in this part of West Virginia, as well as being the oldest architect in point of experience and continuous practice at Morgantown. Among many important buildings designed by and erected under the supervision of Mr. Jacobs are the Madeira (formerly the Franklin) Hotel; Woodburn Hall and an addition to Science Hall, of the University of West Virginia; chapterhouses of the Sigma Chi, Beta Theta Pi, Kappa Alpha, Phi Sigma Kappa, Phi Kappa Psi and Phi Kappa Sigma fraternities at the State University; Farmers and Merchants Bank; the old post office at Morgantown, which was the first fire-proof building in this section of the state and is now occupied by the Union Savings and Trust Company; the plant of the Seneca Glass Company; plant of the Union Stopper Company; Fourth Ward School building; First Methodist Protestant Church, Morgantown; First Methodist Episcopal Church, Mount Morris, Pennsylvania; and residences of George C. Baker, William Moorhead, J. H. McDermott, J.C. McVicker, Francis Heermans, J.C. Frazier, and many others of the most modern type in Morgantown and vicinity. Mr. Jacobs is a member of the American Institute of Architects, his affiliation with that organization dating from May 24, 1902. He married Miss M. Ella Wood daughter of the late A.C. Wood, of Morgantown, and they have two children. Virginia is the wife of Allen Bowie, of Wheeling, this state, and they have one child, Mary Eleanor. David Wood Jacobs is at the time of this writing, in 1921, a student in the Morgantown High School.

Subject: Re: [JACOBS] Gabriel Jacobs

Hi John,

Are you the same John Jacobs that corresponded with me back in Oct 2000 from the address of jwjake@gallatinriver.net? If so you had sent me info that Gabriels parents were William Jacobs and Elizabeth Drollinger Jacobs of Allegany Co. MD and I had his parents as William and Elizabeth Dowdle Jacobs of Allegany Co. MD and now we come up with his parents as Jacob Jacobs and Hannah ?. So we do have a problem here for sure.

I do have Gabriel Jacobs who md Margaret Jackson as having a son Cephas b. 8 Jan 1826 md Margaret Ann Ravenscraft 10 Apr 1851 Allegany Co. MD and Cephas died 2 Feb 1903 which came from a book "The History of West Virginia, Old and New" pub 1923 which listed a bio of Cephas Jacobs of Morgantown, WV and his ancestor was Zachariah Jacobs and Gabriel was his father and Gabriel was son of Capt. Jacob Jacobs and Gabriel was born New Jersey 7 Jul 1781 and died 11 Oct 1848 so believe his info agreed but not his parents, md to Margaret Jackson 1805 Allegany Co. MD.

Apparently there were two Jacob Jacobs and one married to Hannah ? and the other md to Hannah Johnson and some have said these are two different Jacob's.

I do have the same info on Gabriel's children as you have listed below and my source was listed as family group sheets from Salt Lake City, sent in by Mrs George W. Herrich and the sources she used were the Bible record of Sarah Jacobs, dau, will of Gabriel Jacobs, Mg record of allegany Co. MD, land records of Allegany Co. MO, Obit of dau Sarah and census records of Allegany Co. MD. Sarah married David Jacobs 4 Dec 1842.

Since I have found out that neither William was my Jacobs line after doing much reseach on both William's and found my Gr Gr grandmother Mary Ann Jacobs who md Henry Phillip Hurn 1st and 2nd md Samuel McCloud, father was Richard Jacobs and believe his 1st wife Eleanor Hilleary were her parents, according to his will in 1824 and his wife's sister, Ann Jacobs Scott's will in 1844 I gave up on those two lines of Jacobs.

First I found family group sheets that listed Mary Ann as dau of Elias Jacobs who was son of William and Elizabeth Bowdle Jacobs and William was son of Benjamin and Ann Hope Jacobs so that was the line I concentrated on and they were listed to have a son Gabriel as well who md Margaret Jackson, which is why I had done some work on that line. Then came the info that Gabriel was son of William and Elizabeth Drollinger Jacobs so I did some work on that line, all needless info to me now.

And of course now the bio of Cephas who says his parents were Gabriel and Margaret Jackson Jacobs and grandfather Jacob Jacobs so where does that leave us for the correct families. Genealogy is so much fun, yet you sure can go down the wrong path a lot of the time and have to go back and start all over to find the correct info and then maybe you never will.

Subject: [JACOBS] Cyrus S. and Mary Ann JACOBS - IA < PA?

Cyrus S. JACOBS, wife Mary Ann was killed in Burlington, Iowa, just after having been elected to a territorial office. His death date was 29 Oct 1838 and I believe he was about 38 at the time. I have reason to believe that Mary Ann was in Lancaster County at least by 1847, which leads me to believe they may originally have come from that area. She had several powers of attorney transactions in Des Moines County, Iowa, subsequent to her husband's death, but she seems to have left that area soon after her husband's death.

Would there have been any probate record of his death filed in Lancaster County? I have seen a will for a Cyrus JACOBS there which was signed 29 Jan 1829 and probated 13 May 1830. However, he doesn't mention a son named Cyrus S. or even Cyrus, only a grandson named Cyrus Hemphill JACOBS.

There seems to be some tie between the JACOBS and SCOTT families in Iowa through a mortgage which my David made on land in Des Moines County to an Andrew SCOTT in Cincinnati, Ohio. When Andrew foreclosed, he granted all interest in that mortgage to Mary Ann JACOBS in Lancaster County (Caernarvon twp.). And then it appears that Mary Ann let David work it off rather than take him to the cleaners. I'm hoping that is an indication of relationship of some degree.

If anyone has any clues whatsoever, I would be grateful to receive them.

Mary Ann's maiden name may have been WALLACE.

Thanks!

Lorraine
